6 Basic Philosophy of the Games

The World Masters Games are an international multi-sport athletic competition held every four years by the International Masters Games Association (IMGA) for athletes over the age of 30 and into their middle age and senior years. The games are held in the year following the Olympics. The first World Masters Games were held in 1985 in Toronto, Canada. The latest Games (the 9th) took place in Auckland, New Zealand in the year 2017.

The World Masters Games 2021 Kansai which marks the 10th celebration do not only represent personal challenge and provide opportunities for a wide range of interactions, but also transmit uniqueness of local area as well as Japanese traditions and cultures to the world. We will create the Games 2021 in Kansai to be a lifelong sports festival which brings dream for the next generations.

- (1) Transmit Japanese sports culture to the world from Kansai, a historic and cultural center of Japan as an advanced region for lifelong sports.
- (2) Hold a history-making, world-class lifelong sports Games while demonstrating human resources and omotenashi culture that has been nurtured in the Kansai region.
- (3) Breed a change from watching and supporting sports to playing them through the integrated promotion of the 2019 Rugby World Cup and 2021 Tokyo Olympic and Paralympic Games.
- (4) Create a new regional hub by demonstrating the host region's independency.
- (5) Promote regional revitalization through sports tourism, the fusion of sport and tourism.
- (6) Drive further promotion of health and sports related industries.
- (7) With an eye on aging trends, contribute to a healthier mature society through sports.

7 Committed to Incorporating Inclusive Thinking to the Games

In the World Masters Games 2021 Kansai, we are committed to incorporating inclusive thinking to the Games to enable a wide variety of people to find their lives worth living while enjoying the Games regardless of their age, gender, ability, with or without disability.

Specifically, we will organise the Games from both the perspective of “planning and operation of the Games,” including the promotion of participation of volunteers with impairments and of “planning and implementation of the competition,” including to hold the competition in the same venues for athletes with or without impairments. We aim to ensure that the philosophy and mechanism of the Games held in Kansai to be handed down as legacy even after the Games.

8 Competition Schedule

Persons eligible for participating in the Games are those who pay the competition participation fee as participants (Athletes, Non-Playing Officials or Supporters) and who are 12 years old or older (as of 1 April 2022), and the participation of children who are less than 12 years old (as of 1 April 2022) is not assumed and no competition participation fee established, accordingly. Provided, however, that as long as they are accompanied by a parent or a guardian, they will be provided with the right to participate in the opening and closing ceremonies (although their number is not limited, when the parent or guardian applies for participation in the competition or after the completion of the application, he/she must report his/her intention to be accompanied by children who are less than 12 years old and their number.)

Only the right to participate in the opening and closing ceremonies will be granted, but participants’ kit, transportation pass (participants living in Japan need to purchase as an option) or others will not be distributed.

15 Payment Methods

The following payment methods are available and accepted. It should be noted that there are no fee for both payment by credit card and payment at the convenience store. Change in the payment method will not be accepted after the competition participation fee has been paid.

(1) Payment by credit card

The following credit cards are accepted.

VISA, Master, JCB, American Express, Diners Club, and Union Pay

(2) Payment at the convenience store (applicable only to residents in Japan and only payable in Japan)

Payment can be made using the personal identification payment number at the convenience stores (Seven-Eleven, Lawson, Family Mart, Mini stop, and Seiko Mart are planned to be used, but some shops may not be used). Unless payment is made within the designated period (within 10 days excluding the application day), the application will be cancelled. Therefore, participants are required to complete the payment by the designated date. It should be noted that changes in the application details and refund after payment are not accepted at the convenience stores.

16 Handling of the Competition Participation Fees, in Case of Cancellation of Participation, etc.

When a participant cancels its participation after the completion of the application procedure, due to its own reasons, its participation fee will be handled in the following manner (all in Japan time).

Division	All amount excluding the handling fee (5% of refund)	No refund
Basic fee, additional fee by discipline, Extra fee of the Athletes	By Monday, 28 February 2022, 11:59:59 p.m.	Tuesday, 1 March 2022 onward
Basic fee of Non-Playing Officials and Supporters	By Thursday, 31 March 2022, 11:59:59 p.m.	Friday, 1 April 2022 onward
Purchase cost of optional transportation pass

*Refer to the Cancellation Policy for further details, including cancellation by the Organisers, natural disaster, etc.

17 Other Fees Required

Rental fees for competition equipment for participants, participation fees for after-party held by discipline, etc., are not included in “14 Competition Participation Fee (Entry Fee)” (provided, however, that participation fees for regular social events are free in principle).

Further details will be posted in the Sports Information Guide.

18 Rights Assigned to Participants

The rights assigned to participants (Athletes, Non-Playing Officials and Supporters) include the following in addition to the right to acquire the transportation pass.

(1) Right to participate in competitions

The right assigned only to “Athletes” including the right to be awarded with a medal when participating as a competitor and achieving a certain result.

(2) Right to get involved in competitions

The right assigned only to “Non-Playing Officials”, which is the right to get involved in a competition as a director, coach, manager, etc. Check the Sports Information Guide for further details.

(3) Right to participate in ceremonies

Right to participate in both the opening ceremony and closing ceremony and to access areas only open to participants. Submission of the “Accreditation Card” (hereinafter referred to as “AD Card”) to be handed over at the time of Accreditation is required.

* Entry to the ceremony venue

Since there is a limit to the venue’s capacity, entry may be restricted. In order to ensure safety in the venue, participants will undergo an ID check and luggage check, and may be asked to refrain from eating and drinking.

The details of the Opening Ceremony and Closing Ceremony are yet to be determined. Once confirmed, the details will be announced in the Participation Terms and Conditions, World Masters Games website, and Entry System.

(4) Right to use various services

Participants who have made the application for participation are eligible to join the Experience Program (paid program) available for participants.

(5) Right to use shuttle bus

Participants who have made the application for participation are eligible to use the shuttle bus available only for participants. The usage conditions thereof vary depending on the type of bus. Check the Transportation Information.

*The participants' kit will be handed over at the time of the Accreditation. The kit will not be sent to those who do not come in for the Accreditation.

19 Insurance need to be subscribed by Participants

The organisers will subscribe accident insurance for participants, however this insurance is applicable only for "injuries incurred during the competition within the competition venues" of the "Athletes and Non-Playing Officials," and does not cover all kinds of risks during the competition. Therefore, participants of the Games are advised to take out insurance against diseases and accidents (Accident insurance, travel insurance, medical insurance, etc.).

In addition, it may be necessary to subscribe specific insurance by the discipline, therefore, please check the Sports Information Guide for details.

20 Games Accreditation

Accreditation must be completed by all Athletes, Non-Playing Officials and Supporters. Accreditation will be held mainly at the Opening Village between 10 and 13 May (Opening Ceremony day) and can be made at each prefectural Masters Village (note the accreditation period, hours, etc.) simultaneously or on subsequent days listed in the item (2) B, C and D below. Both Athletes and Non-Playing Officials must complete the accreditation and sports check-in (see “21 Sport Check-in”) before taking part in a competition (either participating or getting involved), and the accreditation must be completed by the participating competitor itself before the date of the competition in which it participates.

(1) Accreditation method

At the time of accreditation, QR code screen of the smartphone and an identification verification document with a photograph (any one of passport, Japanese driver's license, my number card or basic resident registration card (with a photograph), residence card and physical impairment certificate is accepted) must be submitted for identification verification. An AD card and the participants' kit will be handed over.

An identification verification document with a photograph (any one of passport, Japanese driver's license, my number card or basic resident registration card (with a photograph), residence card and physical impairment certificate) must be submitted for identification verification. Accreditation cannot be accepted without its submission.
- c) Please be sure to bring the issued AD card all the time with you until the end of the competition as its submission access may be requested from the Organisers (access to events or venues may be allowed only to AD card holders). Please note that if it is lost or damaged, it may not be reissued.
- d) Each participant in team competition must complete the accreditation procedure. Accreditation can be accepted at different venues.

21 Sport Check-in

Both Athletes and Non-Playing Officials must complete the sports check-in before participation in the competition (Supporters are not required to register). After the completion of the accreditation, Athletes and Non-Playing Officials must go to each competition venue for sports check-in (see “20 Games Accreditation”) before taking part in a competition. Participants in multiple disciplines must register for each competition. Check the Sports Information Guide for further details.

22 Doping Control

- (1) The doping control in accordance with the World Anti-Doping Code and the International Masters Games Association Anti-Doping Rules shall apply to this competition.
- (2) Anti-doping activities (doping inspections and anti-doping education activities) shall be conducted in accordance with the International Masters Games Association Anti-Doping Rules.
- (3) Participants are deemed to have agreed to be subject to doping control procedures in accordance with the International Masters Games Association Anti-Doping Rules upon entry to the competition. Participants are advised to check the International Masters Games Association Anti-Doping Rules for more details.
- (4) This competition aims to promote anti-doping activities as an activity to protect clean sports and clean athletes in order to leave various values of sports to the next generation through sports in cooperation with the Japan Anti-Doping Agency.

23 Handling of Personal Information

The Organisers will handle personal information based on the “Personal Information Policy” in compliance with the Act on the Protection of Personal Information and related laws and regulations, as well as the EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). The Organisers will use personal information to provide guidance for participation in the Games, record notifications, notifications of related information, provision of services from organisations that sponsor, collaborate and co-sponsor the Games and are organisations related thereto for the purpose of improving services for participants, and provision of first aid, cooperation with medical institutions, subscription to insurances, announcements of records (ranking, etc) and the like. In addition, it may be used by the Organisers to check the application content.

24 How the Contact or Notification Is Made

- (1) How the contact or notification will be made by the Organisers to participants
 - a) Unless otherwise specified, the Organisers will contact participants by sending an e-mail to the address indicated by them at the time of registration in the Entry System, general posting on the Entry System, a posting on the screen after login or by other methods deemed appropriate by the Organisers.
 - b) If the contact or notification set forth in the preceding paragraph is made by e-mail, the Organisers deem that the notification becomes effective when the e-mail is sent to the mail server used by the participants. Participants shall view and check the email sent by the Organisers without delay.
 - c) If the contact or notification of the paragraph a) is made by a posting on the Entry System or a posting on the screen after login, such contact or notification will be deemed to have become effective at the instant at which the notification is posted on the Entry System or on the log-in screen and the notification is readily available when the Entry System or on the login screen is accessed.
- (2) How the contact or notification will be made by participants to the Organisers

25 Special Points of Attention

- (1) The Organisers will operate the Games in accordance with the "Sports Information Guide," "Cancellation Policy," "Personal Information Policy," "Terms of Use of the Entry System" and "World Anti-Doping Code" (hereinafter referred to as "Rules") in addition to this Participation Terms and Conditions.
- (2) The Games are subject to doping control based on the World Anti-Doping Code and the International Masters Games Association Anti-Doping Rules, and the anti-doping activities (doping testing and anti-doping education and enlightenment activities) will be conducted in accordance with the International Masters Games Association Anti-Doping Rules.
- (3) The Organisers may not allow participants to participate in the Games or continue participating in the competition for reasons of excess capacity or safety management. If the Organisers determine that a participant cannot participate in the Games or continue competing, such participant must obey the instructions of the Organisers.
- (4) Persons eligible for participating in the Games are those who pay the competition participation fee as participants (Athletes, Non-Playing Officials or Supporters) who are 12 years old or older (as of 1 April 2022) and who participate with the consent of their families and relatives, and if participants are underaged participants (under 20 years of age under the Civil Code and the Act on the Protection of Personal Information), adult ward, persons under curatorship and persons under assistance, they shall have obtained consent from legal representatives such as persons in parental authority in advance.

- (5) Those who participate in the Games must submit identity verification documents with a photograph of the persons themselves and shall be understood to have consented to be subject to identity verification and other necessary security inspections (including inspection of private possessions) that will be performed when entering or leaving the venues of the games. The Organisers shall make a decision regarding admission or rejection of participants on their responsibility as the Organisers.
- (6) Those who participate in a plurality of disciplines must check that the disciplines are not overlapped in their start time and there is enough time for preparation and participation (including travel time between venues) before making application, and report any changes such as no participation, change of disciplines (events) in which to participate, etc., through my page of the Entry System by 28 February 2022 in Japan time.
- (7) When any change is made to the attendance at the opening and closing ceremonies, the accreditation venue and the flight schedule (flight number, and the date and airport of arrival and departure, etc.), participants who make such change are required to make the appropriate changes through my page of the Entry System by 31 March 2022 in Japan time.
- (8) The Organisers may contact those who have applied to make inquiry on the content thereof as needed by email or telephone.

26 Ownership of Rights

- (1) The Organisers have the right to exclusively control the property value of the portraits of the participants within the scope specified in (2) and (3) below, and will manage them appropriately.
- (2) Participants will not make any objection to the Organisers and the companies, organisations, news organisations, individuals, etc. that are approved by the Organisers.
 - a) Taking portraits of participants or recording them in and around the venues during the holding of the Games
 - b) Using the portraits taken or recorded in the preceding paragraph a) for use for posting, reporting, advertising, publicity, or commercializing regardless of the type of media for commercial or non-commercial purpose
 - c) Assigning the portraits taken or recorded in the preceding paragraph a) for payment
- (3) Participants will not be able to claim for any compensation for the use of portraits in the preceding paragraph, regardless of the reasons therefor.
- (4) In addition to what is set forth in the preceding paragraphs, videos, photos, articles, records, etc. of the games recorded by the Organisers and the companies, organisations, news organisations, individuals, etc. that the Organisers recognizes (name, team name, age, gender, address (country name) (Including prefectural or municipality names), and competition results (records), images, audio, remarks, and other personal information) will be used for posting, reporting, advertising, publicity, or commercializing regardless of the type of media for commercial or non-commercial purpose.

27 Disclaimer of the Organisers

- (1) The Organisers (including International Masters Games Association (IMGA)) will make the utmost efforts to abide by the duty of care and safely operate the Games as the administrator. Even in the case of an accident, unless there is intentional or gross negligence, the Organisers will not be legally responsible for damages or losses.
- (2) False declaration of the name, age, gender, entry qualification, records and the like (including unintentional errors), participation other than the applicant (unauthorized participation) and transfer of rights (including transfer of AD cards) are not permitted. If a person is found liable for a violation in the regard, or if a person does not comply with rules, or obey a reasonable instruction or decision, he/she accept any decision adopted by the Organisers, including participation refusal, cancellation of award. In that case, the Organisers will not make any compensation or refund the participation fee.
- (3) Participants must make all necessary preparations and arrangements to participate in the Games on their own responsibility, including reservation of air tickets and accommodation, taking out of insurances (accident insurance, travel insurance, medical insurance, etc.), payment of medical expenses arising from participating in the present games and all other necessary services.
- (4) When receiving a service from a third party that cooperates with the Games (equipment rental, insurance, accommodation, sightseeing tour, etc.), it is the sole responsibility of participants to select an appropriate service. The Organisers are not responsible for any loss or damage caused by the use of such services.
- (5) The Organisers will not be held responsible for delay in making application due to malfunction of Internet equipment or circuits or late arrival due to public transportation or road conditions on the day of the competition.
- (6) When the competition is cancelled for reasons not attributable to the Organiser (earthquake, storms and floods, snowfall, incidents, accidents, epidemics, industrial or private disputes, wars, riots, fires, weather conditions, terrorism, (threat of a terrorism) , no compensation or refund for the participation fees, etc., will be paid. In addition, the cancellation after the completion of the application procedures will be based on the “Cancellation Policy.”
- (7) The Organisers will not be responsible for injuries, illnesses, loss, and other accidents that occurred in an environment where appropriate management is exercised, such as injuries to the body due to a contact, etc. that occurred in a competition held within the normal range, unless there is intentional or gross negligence. In addition, the Organiser will take first-aid measures for accidents during a competition, but will not be responsible for subsequent procedures.
- (8) The Organisers will take out an accident insurance policy to cover “injuries incurred during the competition within the competition venue” of “Athletes and Non-Playing Officials”, but it does not cover all risks during participation in the competition.
- (9) The Organisers may change the competition schedule and venues, and cancel, integrate or readjust disciplines (including events and age categories) when there is an operational need or a reasonable ground (for example, when the number of applications is few and the competition cannot be held for certain category). The Organisers will not be liable for any damages or losses (including travel and accommodation charges) that may arise from such circumstances. Provided, however, that the participation fee will be handled in accordance with the “Cancellation Policy.”
- (10) The Organisers will endeavor to provide exact information on the games and correct errors if any (including information provided by email in relation to the Games).

- (11) Any damages or injuries caused by participants by violation of rules will be their responsibility and the Organisers will not take any responsibility.
- (12) Any dispute or trouble arising out of transactions, communications, etc. that occur between a participant and another participant or a third party in relation to the Games shall be handled and resolved at their own responsibility.

28 Prohibited Matters

Any person participating in the Games must not take actions that correspond or that are deemed by the Organisers to correspond to the following. If any participant falls or is determined by the Organisers to fall under any of the following, the Organisers may refuse its participation in the Games or cancel approval after the participation.
